Re: Outstanding Section 13.3 Discrimination Claims

This morning I spoke with Luke Hollingsworth, Local 13 Labor Relations Committee member, regarding the outstanding Section 13.3 Complaints identified in my letter to him dated October 20, 2015, which I sent on October 19th, and which the JPLRC was sent a carbon copy.

Luke told me he talked with Eric at PMA, and said he told him that he needed to respond to my Complaints, and seemed to imply that Eric and PMA were the ones responsible for not processing my Section 17.4 Complaints.

It is hard for me to believe that a PMA LR Representative that has only been at PMA for about 1 year is making any decisions related to the processing of Section 17.4 claims of Section 13.3 Discrimination violations.

Kindly put me on the agenda for the next JPLRC meeting so as I can be given an explanation of why the following Section 13.3 Complaints are not being processed in accordance with Section 17.4:

- The 13.3 Complaint I filed on August 18, 2015, regarding the Local 13 Grievance Committee adjudicating chiseling complaints.
- The 13.3 Complaint Steven Black filed regarding the Local 13 Grievance Committee adjudicating chiseling complaints.

- The 13.3 Retaliation Complaint Steven Black filed on August 31, 2015, regarding the Grievance Committee increasing his chiseling fine from $200 to $500.
- The 13.3 Complaint filed on September 3, 2015, by Child of Deceased, Jennifer Risler, whom I am representing.
- The 13.3 Complaint I filed on October 13, 2015, regarding the Crane Equalization Review and the Equalization formula.
- The 13.3 Complaint I filed on February 22, 2013, regarding the 2 years I was off due to 13.2 complaints not covered by the PCLCD, and the Transcript of the December 18, 2012, hearing ordering my time off.

I am tired of getting the run around from Local 13.

I am the moving party.

Kindly put me on the agenda for the next JPLRC meeting, so I can look the person in the eyes when they explain what is happening with each of the Section 13.3 Complaints listed above.

Sincerely,
